37 Drivers, Motorcyclists Cited During Motorcycle Safety Enforcement Operation

Menifee, CA – On Wednesday, May 7th from 3pm to 7pm, the Menifee Police Department held a Motorcycle Safety Operation. During the operation, the Menifee Police Department cited 37 drivers and motorcycle riders for a variety of violations.

Out of the 37 drivers cited, 23 drivers were cited for speeding, the other 14 drivers cited were for various other violations. All these violations committed by motorcyclists and passenger cars can be extremely dangerous to all drivers on the road.

The Menifee Police Department will hold another motorcycle safety enforcement in the coming months, however, the date(s) and time(s) have not been determined yet.

Funding for this program was provided by a grant from the California Office of Traffic Safety, through the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration.
